COMPLAINT OF JAMES D. GOODMAN AND ROSALYN GOODMAN

Docket No. C2015-2

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE RATE AND SERVICE INQUIRY REPORT
(August 28, 2015)

Pursuant to Order No. 2585, this report addresses the status of the rate and service inquiry initiated in this docket. As background, on April 23, 2015, James D. Goodman and Rosalyn Goodman (“Complainants”) filed a complaint with the Postal Regulatory Commission (“Commission”) in which they alleged that the modification of delivery service to their address due to interference from an unrestrained dog was unlawful.¹ On July 15, 2015, the Commission dismissed the complaint and referred Complainants’ allegations to the rate and service inquiry process.²

As a condition of the referral to the rate and service inquiry process, the Commission instructed the Postal Service to file a status report within 45 days of the
